burial was in the butcher cemetery at williamsport

this oil, extracted from grape seeds, is high in healthy polyunsaturated fats, which lower LDL (bad) cholesterol and increase HDL (good) cholesterol.

cats have it even worse because of their unique physiology, which doesn't always respond well to medicines that benefit dogs and humans.

additional treatment ensure that the patient is well fed and well hydrated (infusions or nasogastric tube if necessary)